Night Fever is bringing boogie back to Venice Community Center

Break out your polyester slacks, wide-collar shirts and gold neckwear because the disco mirror ball will be in full spin-mode as Night Fever brings its popular tribute to the Bee Gees back to the Venice Community Center, 326 S. Nokomis Ave., Venice, for two nights, Jan. 26 and 27. Both shows begin at 7 p.m. Doors open at 5:30 p.m.

Back by popular demand, this all-Canadian cast from Toronto has been wowing audiences from Disney World to Russia, recreating the look and sound of the Bee Gees.

"With amazing vocals, Night Fever recreates the Bee Gees live in concert so accurately you will find yourself talking like Tony Manero!" said Dorian Mattox, Sarasota County Parks and Recreation program coordinator.

Capturing a full history of the Bee Gees, Night Fever unleashes a myriad of Bee Gees hits, including "To Love Somebody," "Words," "Massachusetts," "I Started a Joke," "Jive Talking," "More Than a Woman," "Night Fever," "You Should Be Dancing," "Stayin' Alive" and many more.

The Sunrise Rotary Club will get the party started at 5:30 by serving up grilled hamburgers and hotdogs and offering a full-liquor cash bar. Tickets are $35 and $25, depending on seating location.
